Squamish Lil'wat Cultural Centre welcomes Executive Chef, D'Arcy Demoe, to team

The Squamish Lil'wat Cultural Centre (SLCC) is proud to announce that D'Arcy Demoe has joined our team as Executive Chef. With his dedication to leadership and keen eye for creativity, Demoe will foster our thriving team in delivering culinary excellence in both our Catering and Thunderbird Café departments.

Originally from Ontario, Demoe started his culinary career at a Caribbean-inspired restaurant in Durham, which kick started his addiction to the fast paced restaurant industry. Moving across the country to live the mountain dream, Demoe worked at various kitchens throughout Whistler before returning to Ontario to study Culinary Arts at George Brown College. After graduating, Demoe opened Trios Bistro in Toronto under the influence of Chef Morgan Wilson and Chef Rendall Mercer.

In 2011, Demoe and his family returned to Whistler where the inspiration of the mountains complemented his role as Head Chef of Steeps Grill & Wine Bar on Whistler Mountain. Looking to put a more personal and creative spin on his food, Demoe took his many years of experience and started Harvest Catering, a company inspired by British Columbia and driven to deliver an enhanced dining experience. With his proven track record of culinary expertise, we are excited to have Demoe amplify our menu selections and augment our guests' dining experiences in both our food & beverage outlets.

About Squamish Lil'wat Cultural Centre (SLCC)

Spo7ez Cultural Centre and Community Society is a registered Canadian charity and the first centre of its kind in Canada. The Squamish and Lil'wat Nations came together to celebrate and share our cultures with the world while creating meaningful employment opportunities for members of both nations. By sharing where we are from and where we are going, our visitors acquire a greater understanding of our Nations and the shared territories that Whistler resides upon.
